MUTUAL RESTRAINING ORDER

Both parties are Restrained from doing the following:

- (1) Threatening, abusing, annoying, or interfering with the other party or the parties' child(ren);
- (2) Creating or incurring debt (such as a credit card) in the name of the other party or in the parties' joint names or cause a lien or loan to be placed against any of their real or personal property.
- (3) Selling, disposing of, or dissipating any asset, real or personal property, including without limitation: bank accounts, tax refunds, and money (other than regular income) of either party or a child.
- (4) Removing household goods and furniture from the marital residence without approval of the court or other party.
- (5) Changing or failing to renew the present health, life, home, automobile or other insurance coverage; remove the other party as beneficiary on any life, health, or retirement benefits without further order of this court.
- (6) Changing or establishing a new residence for the parties' minor children without the written consent of the other party or permission of the Court.
- (7) Claiming the children as dependents on any income tax return without approval of the court or other party.

It is the ORDER of the Court that above restraining order shall not prevent the payment of ordinary and necessary business and living expenses. This Order is granted upon application by Plaintiff/Defendant and supported by affidavit. Objection to the Order may be made by a proper motion and counter-affidavit filed within fourteen (14) days, pursuant to Civ.R. 75(N)(2).

IT IS SO ORDERED.

R.C. 2323.311(B)

(4) A judge or magistrate of the court shall review the affidavit of indigency as filed pursuant to division (B)(2) of this section and shall approve or deny the applicant's application to qualify as an indigent litigant. The judge or magistrate shall approve the application if the applicant's gross income does not exceed one hundred eighty-seven and five-tenths per cent of the federal poverty guidelines as determined by the United States department of health and human services for the state of Ohio and the applicant's monthly expenses are equal to or in excess of the applicant's liquid assets as specified in division (C)(2) of section 120-1-03 of the Administrative Code, as amended, or a substantially similar provision. If the application is approved, the clerk shall waive the advance deposit or security and the court shall proceed with the civil action or proceeding. If the application is denied, the clerk shall retain the filing of the action or proceeding, and the court shall issue an order granting the applicant whose application is denied thirty days to make the required advance deposit or security, prior to any dismissal or other action on the filing of the civil action or proceeding.

(6) Nothing in this section shall prevent a court from approving or affirming an application to qualify as an indigent litigant for an applicant whose gross income exceeds one hundred eighty-seven and five-tenths per cent of the federal poverty guidelines as determined by the United States department of health and human services for the state of Ohio, or whose liquid assets equal or exceed the applicant's monthly expenses as specified in division (C)(2) of section 120-1-03 of the Administrative Code, as amended, or a substantially similar provision.
